134. John Bewill aged 20.

That some small time after ye death of Wm Harris the dyd being at work in his 1st field. Jacob Coleson came to him & after some discourse pulled a paper out of his pocket wch was signed Willm Harris p his mark & wit. p. John Pleasants & John Evans & was as ye dyes understood it & ye sd Coleson told him the will of ye sd Harris. wch he ye sd Coleson sd he was carrying to John Butler. but what is become of ye sd paper he knows not & it being in an unknown hand, the dyes cold not read it. 6-2-1690

134 Martha Bewill aged 18 yrs.

That ye day Wm Harris dyed ye dyt being in B. with Jacob Coleson & Jos. Patteson coming down from Mr. Batts Quarter - Geo Archer a little above Mr Banisters did meet us & ye sd Archer did ask Jacob Coleson if he had Willm Harris' will abt him & ye sd Coleson reply yes - he had it in his pocket & then did deliver unto him ye paper wch. ye sd Archer opened & looked in all ye way from agt (?) Mr. Banisters until he came to Fleets + by ye way told the dept thus, or to ye same effect. your father told you he had given you 20 ells, but here is but five, + in the yard at Fleets. The ed Archer did give ye dept the ed paper + bid her burn it, but soon after took it again. then going down to the ed Gen. Archers (the dept at Fleets getting up behind him). the ed Archer did softly bid her be sure never to speak of it, + if she gott a boy not tell him. + further the dept saith that the ed Archer did under the appletrees at his own house give ye ed paper to his dau Judith + bid her burn it + ye ed Judith did take ye same + putt it in her pocket, but what is since come of it she knows not. 6-2-1690

135 - Eliza Chamlis aged 17 yrs.

That ye nt day after Will Harris was buryed the dept did hear Gen Archer, Jacob Coburn + Martha the now wife of John Gen. Will talking something abt. Wm Harris' will under ye appletrees at Gen Archers, but ye descouerse the remembers not + ye dept going forward them ye sd Colson did pull a paper out of his pocket & say heres the will this paper he did then put up again, but wht is since come of it, she is ignorant. 6-2-1690.
